

The new templates

What do they offer? What do you like?

Types of templates

Templates

- applied to existing pages
- permanently embedded in a page
- versioning is reflected on all pages
- used for consistent formatting
- ideal for collecting structured information
- editing with forms is possible

- applied only during page creation
- content: structured and formatted text, templates, categories
- page templates administration through admin users
- can be namespace-specific

- located in the namespace "Template:"
- can be edited and maintained directly in the wiki
- Purpose: consistent formatting and support for content organization
